“We’re excited to formally introduce our lineup of competitive and free play titles for the convention,” said Landon Carroll, co-director of NYGExpo. “As part of our core identity, we aim to be the most diverse and representative gaming convention in Oklahoma and beyond. In just our first year, we’ve made great strides toward that goal with more than 40 tournaments and more than 1,000 options of free play titles, spanning nearly every gaming genre and platform.”

NYGExpo is fully staffed by volunteers from various Oklahoma gaming communities. Each member of the planning team is responsible for curating casual gaming, tournaments and unique programming for their area of expertise or subgenre. The team plans to make NYGExpo the most diverse gaming convention in Oklahoma. Individuals from around the state will have the opportunity to connect with others, compete for prizes and learn about the culture of gaming.

Weekend admission for adults is $20 online or at the door. Children ages 3-8 are $5, and children two and under get in free.
